

INFORMATION & APPLICATION

ABOUT LEADERSHIP DODGE:

Leadership Dodge is a training run through the Dodge City Area Chamber of Commerce. The Mission of Leadership Dodge is to foster, renew, and sustain vital and diverse leadership in the Dodge City and Ford County areas. The sessions will focus on issues facing our community and the development and enhancement of leadership skills needed to address those issues. This program aims to bring together people from diverse backgrounds to make shared decisions for the common good of the whole community. The Leadership Dodge program will provide skills to make you a better leader at work, home, and within the community.

LEADERSHIP DODGE IS DESIGNED TO:

- Identify and recruit highly motivated emerging and current leaders to participate in the program and within the community.
- Inform, challenge, and engage participants about the opportunities and needs in and around Dodge City and Ford County.
- Develop interpersonal relationships and build networking among the participants.
- Encourage diverse dialogue among the participants, community leaders, businesses, and facilitators.

TO PARTICIPATE:

Individuals who have a genuine interest in developing personal and community leadership skills should complete the following form to apply for the 2019 Leadership Dodge program. A maximum of 15 individuals, representing a broad spectrum of businesses and organizations will be provided the opportunity to participate. Applications will be reviewed by a selection committee and notified upon acceptance.
